

March 9, 1978

LB 671, 184

PRESIDENT: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, Senator Marsh, what if at a later date the mother says...the mother changes her mind and says no, this is not true, what happens then?

SENATOR MARSH: This is covered because there are two things that have to happen. You have to have proof of the paternity which is the first thing and the second thing is that you have to have a request by the person who has the custody of the child so that the protection of the child is covered whatever happens. In other words the decision that is made at birth can't be changed later just because you think it is fun to do. That the protection is there for the child and this... this goes back to 1973 so that any changes can be made before the child is in school this next fall.

SENATOR NICHOL: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of Senator Shirley Marsh's amendment. Record your vote. Have you all voted? Are there any senators around to vote on this issue? Record.

PRESIDENT: All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. They are adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, I now have a series of amendments on 184. The first one is offered by Senator Chambers.

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DUIS: A point of order. I believe that there is an incorrect title on our daily worksheet to this bill. Is that correct or not?

PRESIDENT: The Speaker says it is correct.

SENATOR DUIS: Is that the text of the bill? Then we don't have a bill to consider because the title is different from the text.

SPEAKER: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Luedtke.
